The Lorax tells the story of the Once-ler, a businessman who arrives in a lush valley populated by the cheerful Brown Bar-ba-loots, playful Swomee-Swans, and the wise Lorax, the spokesperson for the trees (Truffula Trees). Driven by greed, the Once-ler begins harvesting the Truffula Trees to manufacture Thneeds, a seemingly desirable product. This action leads to the devastation of the environment, impacting all the creatures that call the valley home. The Lorax, through his warnings and protests, tries to stop the Once-ler, ultimately failing until the valley is stripped bare.
